Article 1 In order to share the spirit of “love thy neighbor”(Luke 10:25-37), the “Good Samaritan Fund” is established and these instructions stipulated.

Scripture : And behold, a lawyer stood up to put him to the test, saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?” He said to him, “What is written in the Law? How do you read it?” And he answered, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself.” And he said to him, “You have answered correctly; do this, and you will live.” But he, desiring to justify himself, said to Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” Jesus replied, “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was, and when he saw him, he had compassion. He went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he set him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, ‘Take care of him, and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back.’ Which of these three, do you think, proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell among the robbers?” He said, “The one who showed him mercy.” And Jesus said to him, “You go, and do likewise.”

Article 2 Funding for this grant will come from the university budget and donations from students, faculty, staff, alumni and other friends of the university. It will be managed by the Chaplain’s Office and held in a “Good Samaritan” account.

Article 3 Student applicants must fulfill one of the following criteria :

1. Struggling with the recent loss of family.
2. Facing serious illness.
3. Suffering other forms of serious hardship.

Application Process : Students can apply directly or advisors can apply on a student’s behalf. If the requested amount is less than 50,000 TWD, the Chaplain’s Office can directly approve the request. If it is between 50,000 and 80,000 TWD, the University President must approve the application. Awards may not exceed 80,000 TWD. Students may apply once for the same reason, except in unique circumstances.

Article 4 Faculty and staff applicants must fulfill one of the following criteria :

1. Facing serious illness.
2. Suffering other forms of serious hardship.

Application Process : Faculty or staff can apply directly or their supervisor can apply on their behalf. If the requested amount is less than 30,000 TWD, the Chaplain's Office can directly approve the request. If it is between 30,000 and 60,000 TWD, the University President must approve the application. Awards may not exceed 60,000 TWD. Faculty and staff may apply once for the same reason.

Article 5 These instructions were approved by the Campus Ministry Oversight Committee and were reported to the President for implementation. Any alterations must go through the same process.
